OMNIBUS OBJECTION PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §§502(b), 503, AND 507
TO CERTAIN ADMINISTRATIVE AND/OR PRIORITY CLAIMS

The above-captioned reorganized debtors (collectively, the “Reorganized Debtors”),¹ hereby file this Omnibus Objection (the “Objection”) Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §502(b) to Certain Administrative and/or Priority Claims filed by various Claimants identified on the attached Exhibit A, and request entry of an order (the “Order”) substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B. In support of this Objection, the Reorganized Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. On March 25, 2003 (the “Petition Date”), the Reorganized Debtors each filed voluntary petitions² in this Court for reorganization relief under Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330, as amended (the “Bankruptcy Code”). On March 26, 2003, this

¹ The Debtors include: James River Coal Company; James River Coal Sales, Inc.; James River Coal Service Company; Leeco, Inc.; Leeco Processing Company; BDCC Holding Co., Inc.; Blue Diamond Export Company; Eolia Resources, Inc.; Blue Diamond Coal Company; Leatherwood Processing Company; Bledsoe Coal Corporation; Shamrock Coal Company, Incorporated; Bledsoe Processing Company; Johns Creek Elkhorn Coal Corporation; McCoy Elkhorn Coal Corporation; Pike County Resources, Inc.; Primary Energies Corporation; Johns Creek Processing Company; Bell County Coal Corporation; Hignite Processing Company; Bledsoe Coal Leasing Company; and, Johns Creek Coal Company.

² One of the Debtors, Johns Creek Coal Company, actually filed its voluntary petition in this Court on March 21, 2003.

Court entered an order providing for the joint administration of the Reorganized Debtors' Chapter 11 cases. Between the Petition Date and May 6, 2004 (the "Effective Date"), the Reorganized Debtors each remained as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. On September 24, 2003, the Court entered an Order (Docket No. 413, the "Bar Date Order") establishing November 17, 2003 as the last day for timely filing proofs of claim for general unsecured claims (the "General Bar Date") and establishing January 16, 2004 as the last day for timely filing proofs of claim for governmental units (the "Governmental Bar Date"). On April 27, 2004, the Court entered an Order (Docket No. 737, the "Administrative Bar Date Order") establishing June 30, 2004 as the last day for timely filing administrative claims (the "Administrative Bar Date"). (The Bar Date Order and the Administrative Bar Date Order are sometimes collectively referred to herein as the "Bar Date Orders." The General Bar Date, the Governmental Bar Date, and the Administrative Bar Date, are sometimes collectively referred to herein as the "Bar Date.")

3. On April 21, 2004, the Court held a confirmation hearing on the Reorganized Debtors' Second Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization on April 21, 2004 (Docket No. 718, the "Plan"). The Court entered its Order confirming the Plan on April 22, 2004 (Docket No. 726, the "Confirmation Order"). The Confirmation Order confirmed the appointment of a Liquidating Trustee to administer a Liquidating Trust, which is the vehicle for making distributions to general unsecured creditors on account of their claims. The Plan provided that the Liquidating Trustee has the right to object to claims to the extent they involve General Unsecured Claims.

4. The Effective Date, as that term is defined in the Plan, occurred on May 6, 2004.

5. This Court has jurisdiction over this Objection pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §157(b)(2). Venue of these cases in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1408 and 1409. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 102(1), 105(a), 502, 503, and 507(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 3007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

RELIEF REQUESTED

6. Each of the claimants listed on the attached Exhibit A (each a “Claimant” and collectively the “Claimants”) filed one or more proofs of claim (the “Proof of Claim”). Each Proof of Claim purports to assert certain administrative claims (each a “Claim” and collectively, the “Claims”) against the Reorganized Debtors’ estate.³

7. The Reorganized Debtors dispute and deny that they are liable under agreement or applicable law for the entire amount of the Claims as asserted in the Proofs of Claim. Therefore, by this Objection, the Reorganized Debtors object to the allowance of the Claims under section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and request that the Court enter the Order disallowing the Claims to the extent they are not enforceable under agreement or applicable law against the Reorganized Debtors.

BASIS FOR OBJECTION

8. The Reorganized Debtors have reviewed their books and records, the Proofs of Claim and any documentation filed in support thereof. After such review, the Reorganized

Debtors assert that they are not liable to the Claimants, and the Claims are not enforceable, under any applicable law or agreement for the Claims in the amounts asserted in the Proofs of Claim.⁴

9. Section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a claim asserted in a proof of claim shall be allowed, except to the extent “such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law.” 11 U.S.C.

§ 502(b)(1). The Claims asserted by the Claimants in the Proofs of Claim are not enforceable against the Reorganized Debtors for the amounts set forth in the Proofs of Claim. Therefore, the Claims should be disallowed to the extent they exceed the amounts that are enforceable under applicable law or agreement. The last column on Exhibit A states the “maximum allowable amount” of the Claims. If the Maximum Allowable Amount is “0.00,” the Reorganized Debtors request that the Claim be disallowed in its entirety.

10. Section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code states that administrative expense claims may be allowed for the “actual necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate.” 11 U.S.C. §503(b)(1). To the extent that the last column on Exhibit A proposed an amount of “0.00,” the Reorganized Debtors assert that the Claim was not an “actual” or “necessary” cost or expense of preserving the estate.

11. In addition, some of the Proofs of Claim may assert legitimate Claims, although such Claims are not entitled to administrative expense or priority status. In such cases, the next to last column on Exhibit A states the Reorganized Debtors’ proposed classification of the ⁴ Hugh Ewing, George Slocum, and Edward Snyder, three former directors of the Reorganized Debtors, filed an application for an administrative expense relating to certain payment to which they are entitled to receive under the Reorganized Debtors’ Key Employment Retention Plan. The Reorganized Debtors do not dispute that these former directors are entitled to a KERP payment, but the amount of their respective payments has not yet been finalized. The Reorganized Debtors are cooperating with these former directors in calculating the amount of their respective KERP payments. They are listed on the attached Exhibit A solely to preserve the Reorganized Debtors’ right to object to their claim only if a dispute arises with respect to the amount of the KERP payments.

Claim. If the next to last column on Exhibit A states “unsecured,” the Reorganized Debtors request that the Claim be reclassified as a general unsecured, nonpriority claim.

RESPONSES TO THE OBJECTIONS

12. Any response to this Objection must be filed by the Response Deadline listed on the accompanying Notice and must comply with the requirements on the Notice. In addition, any response should contain the following information:

(a) a description of the basis for the amount of the asserted Claims;

(b) a concise statement specifically setting forth the reasons why the Claim should not be disallowed or modified by the Court in the manner set forth in this Objection, including, but not limited to, the specific factual and legal bases in support of the Response;

(c) all documentation or other evidence of the Claim, to the extent not included with the Claim previously filed with the Court; and

(d) the name, address, and telephone number of the person (which may be a legal representative) possessing ultimate authority to reconcile, settle, or otherwise resolve the Claim.

13. If a Response contains an address different from that stated on the objected to Claim, the address in the Response shall control and shall be the service address for other future service of papers.

14. On August 13, 2004, the Court entered an Order establishing procedures for claim objections (the “Claims Procedures Order”), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit C. Pursuant to the Claims Procedures Order, if a timely Response is filed to a claim objection, the Claim will be treated as a Contested Claim. If a timely Response is filed, an initial settlement and pretrial conference will be held at the time established on the Notice accompanying this Objection. Joint pretrial statements will not be required before the initial settlement and pretrial conference has been held. If the Contested Claim is not resolved by the initial settlement and pretrial conference, a Pretrial Order will be entered setting a substantive pretrial conference and requiring the parties to prepare a joint pretrial statement.

FURTHER OBJECTION RESERVED

15. The Reorganized Debtors' objection(s) to the Claims are presently limited to the grounds asserted above. The Reorganized Debtors expressly reserve all rights for themselves and for the Liquidating Trustee to raise other objections to the Claims (subject to the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the confirmed Plan) , until such time as the Claim has been finally resolved by Court order. Such amendments may include, without limitation, additional objections to the amount of the Claim.

FURTHER INFORMATION

16. Questions about the Objection or requests for additional information about the proposed disposition of the Claims should be directed to the Reorganized Debtors' counsel either: (i) in writing at Bass, Berry & Sims PLC, 315 Deaderick Street, Suite 2700, Nashville, TN 37238 (Attn.: Gene L. Humphreys, Esq.); or (ii) by telephone at (615) 742-7757. The Claimants should not contact the Clerk of the Court to discuss the merits of the Claim.

WHEREFORE the Reorganized Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an order disallowing and/or reclassifying the Claims as requested.
